DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's amendments, arguments and terminal disclaimer filed January 13, 2005 have been fully considered and they are deemed to be persuasive.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 19-36 are allowed over the prior art of record.

Reasons For Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for Allowance:

Regarding Independent claims 19,27 and 33, Applicant's particular method and associated object-oriented computing system, which includes a data file structure stored in a memory which contains an identification of objects in a software program, properties and handlers associated with respective objects, pointers to ancestor objects from which a given object inherits properties and handlers, and pointers to descendant objects which inherit properties and handlers from a given object, a user interface via which a user selects an object and which displays ancestor objects and descendant objects for the selected object, the user interface configured to enable a user to indicate a change in relationship between a selected object and at least two ancestor objects or at least one descendant object, wherein the change includes a change in inherited attributes associated with the selected object and for indicating a change for modifying one or more pointers associated with the selected object in the data file structure to correspond to the change in combination with other limitations of the claims, was not disclosed by, would not have been obvious over, nor would have been fairly suggested by the prior art of record.

The dependent claims, being further limiting to the independent claims, definite and enabled by the specification are also allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
